With more than 30 cellar doors, no trip to Marlborough is complete without a taste of our incredible wines.

Join a guided tour or map your own trail, bike between tastings to slow the pace, or settle in with a platter or long lunch to pair your tastings.

As Aotearoa New Zealand's largest wine region, Marlborough offers a diverse range of wines - from the sauvignon blanc that made us famous to expressive pinot noir, generous chardonnay, fine sparkling and lively aromatics. It's hard to believe our story only began in 1973.

Meet the original labels and the families still tending the vines, and taste why Marlborough is impossible to imitate — and discover why 98% of vineyard land here is certified Sustainable Winegrowing NZ™.

Cellar doors are popular with locals and visitors, so please call ahead to book your experiences to avoid any disapointment. Some venues may also pause tastings in winter but remain open for wine sales, so please check directly, as Google may not show this.*
